

3L: LANGUAGE & LITERACY FOR LEARNING

Professional Development

Strengthening Teaching. Improving Learning. Across Every Classroom.

An 8-module, 20-hour professional development program to support teachers and schools to develop a shared, consistent, and explicit approach to language and literacy – one that strengthens teaching practice and improves learning outcomes for all students across all disciplines. This training includes group workshops, practical readings and classroom-based activities. Eligible for ELA-SD funding.

Why 3L?

3L places language and literacy at the heart of learning, in every classroom, for every student. From strengthening instruction to increased student success, 3L aims to provide:

- Improved teacher practice across disciplines
- Increased student achievement
- Consistent, school-wide literacy systems
- Strengthen language comprehension aligned with the Science of Reading

Who is it for?

Designed for whole-school impact, the 3L: Language and Literacy for Learning empowers schools to adopt a consistent, school-wide approach to literacy.

Particularly suited for:

Grades 3–12 teachers
across all subjects
